

We in the ConneXion will take this summer to be a BLESSer –
Take this next “season” and try it out . . . see what the Holy Spirit does!

B - Begin with Prayer

Who are my neighbors God is stirring me to be a good neighbor with?

Write their names down so that you can continue to pray for them and be mindful!

L - Listen

What is the Holy Spirit saying?

What “nudges”, impressions, images, thoughts do you hear / see?

What are my neighbors saying?

Pay attention to those around you – what do you hear?

E - Eat

How can I share “eating” times?

We all have 21 meal opportunities, plus snacks, and beverage breaks during any given week – who do you need to invite into your eating times to “break bread together” and build relationships?

S - Serve

How can I reach out to ask someone to help me?

This is the most powerful invite. People like to help! – give them an opportunity to help you.

How can I help others?

This “feels” more natural for us, but don’t necessarily lead with this one, but definitely help serve them.

S - Story

This is an important exercise to 1) identify the aspects of your faith story, 2) synthesize it down into a 3-minute explanation that can be expanded in relationships. 3) Sometimes, this highlights we have not “take the step of asking Jesus to be savior and Lord – so do that – and share that – this is just (if not more) important)

In thinking through my faith story:

- What was my life like before I became a Christian?

- How I came to faith?

- How my life has been different because of my relationship with Christ?

When the time is right, be ready to share
